Summary

I'm a Full Stack Developer who derives pleasure in Development. I have a solid background as a self-taught Developer in Coding and I've been very active in the Information Technology field for the past 4 years. I devote time to reading codes, problem-solving, and personal & leadership development.

So far, I have professionally made use of technologies/languages like HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP, Git & GitHub, and frameworks such as ReactJS, JQuery, and Bootstrap. I'm also conversant with Laravel and Core PHP for backend development. I'm familiar with other technologies AngularJS, ExpressJS, NodeJS, MongoDB, MySQL.
